Hrs after Supreme Court cancels bail, actor Darshan held in murder case

Bail of co-accused cancelled too; actor Pavithra Gowda arrested

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, AUGUST 14

KANNADA ACTOR Darshan Thoogudeepa was arrested on Thursday, hours after the Supreme Court cancelled his bail in the Renukaswamy murder case. In its order on Thursday, the court also cancelled the bail of Darshan's co-accused, pointing out that the Karnataka High Court relief order of December 2024 had "serious legal infirmities".

The HC had granted bail to Darshan, his friend and actor Pavithra Gowda, Pradoosh Rao, Jagadish, Anu Kumar, Lakshman M and Nagaraju K after they were arrested for allegedly abducting, torturing and killing 33-year-old Renukaswamy, a fan who is said to have sent obscene messages to Gowda, in June 2024.

Police on Thursday also took Gowda into custody. Shortly after that, Darshan was arrested at his wife Vijayalakshmi's house in Bengaluru.

A bench of Justices J B Pardiwala and R Mahadevan said the HC order mentioned no cogent reason for the grant of bail, as it directed authorities to take the accused into custody.

"It is evident the order of the High Court suffers from serious legal infirmities. The order fails to record any special or cogent reasons for granting bail under sections 302 and 341PC. Instead, it reflects a mechanical exercise of discretion formed by significant omission of legally relevant facts," the court said. "Moreover, the High Court undertook an extensive examination of witness statements at the pre-trial stage, highlighting alleged contradictions and delays, issues that are inherently matters for the trial court to assess through cross-examination. The trial court alone is the appropriate forum for evaluating the credibility and reliability of witnesses," it said.

The bench said granting bail in "such a serious case without adequate consideration of the nature and gravity of the offence, the accused's role and the tangible risk of interference with the trial amounts to a perverse and wholly unwarranted exercise of discretion." "The well-founded allegations of witness intimidation, coupled with compelling forensic and circumstantial evidence, further reinforce the necessity for cancellation of bail. Consequently, the liberty granted under the impugned order poses a real and imminent threat to the fair administration of justice and risks derailing the trial process," it said.

Darshan is taken into police custody in Bengaluru on Thursday. PTI

The bench said it is satisfied that the case calls for the "exercise of its extraordinary jurisdiction" under Section 439(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. "In a democracy governed by the rule of law, no individual is exempt from legal accountability by virtue of status or social capital," said the bench. It directed that the trial in the case must be conducted expeditiously, and that its observations in the bail case should not influence it.

Justice Pardiwala said: "No man is above the law and no man is below it. Nor do we ask any man's permission when we ask him to obey it. Obedience to the law is demanded as a right, not asked as a favour. The need of the hour is to maintain the rule of law at all times."

Police allege the victim, Renukaswamy, was held in a shed in Bengaluru for three days in June 2024 and tortured. His body was found in a drain. Darshan was arrested two days after the June 9 murder. Police said he allegedly paid a few men for the hit. On December 13, 2024, the HC granted the actor and the other accused bail. On January 24, the top court issued notices to Darshan, Gowda and

COURT WARNS: NO 5-STAR TREATMENT

New Delhi: The SC bench told the Karnataka government that if the accused persons in this murder case are provided with "special or five-star treatment" within jail, "the first step in the process will be to place the jail superintendent under suspension, including all other officials involved in such misconduct".

Months after his arrest, Darshan was seen receiving "special treatment" at a Bengaluru jail. In a viral photo, he was seen smoking a cigarette with gangster J Nagaraj while holding a cup in his hand. Responding to the SC directive, state Home Minister G Parameshwara Thursday said: "The DGP Prisons must have received the order. He will have to perform his duty carefully, after the court made stringent observations." ENS others after a plea by the state government.

Mumbai delivery man 'steals' gold jewellery parcels worth ₹2.9 cr, arrested in Rajasthan

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, AUGUST 14

THE MUMBAI police on Tuesday arrested a courier service delivery boy who had allegedly fled with 17 parcels of gold ornaments — worth Rs 2.9 crore — which he had collected from various jewellery shops in the Kalbadevi area in South Mumbai.

The suspect, Mehul Garg, 24, an employee at 'Jai Ambe Courier Service' in Vile Parle (East), was nabbed from his native place in Udaipur, Rajasthan, and brought to Mumbai on Wednesday, the police said.

Garg, who had formerly worked with the courier firm between April 2023 and March 2024, rejoined only a few days ago, the police said.

According to the police, the complainant, Sahil Kothari, runs

The suspect, Mehul Garg, 24, was nabbed from his native place in Udaipur and brought to Mumbai Wednesday a courier firm that exclusively deals with the collection and delivery of gold and diamond jewellery parcels.

As per the procedure, the delivery agents were supposed to share the order details once they picked the parcels from the jewellery shop and the pictures of the parcel boxes on the office WhatsApp group. Kothari stated in the complaint.

According to Kothari, on August 5, Garg had collected several parcels of gold ornaments from South Mumbai and informed Kothari around 7 pm that his bag was full, but his phone battery was very low and that it would get switched off soon. He had told him that he would be coming to the office.

When Garg did not return till 8 pm, Kothari tried contacting him, but found his mobile switched off. This raised Kothari's suspicions that Garg had intended to steal the parcels as he was aware of their content. Garg had absconded with the gold ornaments worth Rs 2.9 crore instead of delivering to customers, said a police officer.

The complainant then approached the Vile Parle police station, and after verification, a case of breach of trust was registered against Garg on August 7.

Based on technical evidence, the police learnt that he was hiding in Udaipur. The police team visited his village, recovered all the stolen parcels from his house, and arrested him, said a police officer.

Shilpa and Raj Kundra booked for 'cheating' businessman of ₹60 crore

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, AUGUST 14

THE ECONOMIC Offences Wing (EOW) of Mumbai police Wednesday registered a case against actor Shilpa Shetty and her husband Raj Kundra for allegedly cheating a Juhu-based businessman of ₹60.48 crore.

The complainant, Deepak Kothari, alleged he and his company made repeated attempts to recover the money from businessman Kundra and Shetty but failed as they cited pandemic-related delays. A resident of Mumbai, Kothari is a director of Lotus Capital Financial Services, a non-banking financial company.

Kothari said he found that the couple had used the funds for personal benefit. In his FIR, Kothari alleged that Rajesh Arya, who was working as a loan agent in his firm, said that Kundra and Shetty wanted to take a business loan, and that he knew them personally. A meeting was arranged at a five-star hotel in Juhu among Kundra, Shetty, Arya, the complainant and his son.

Kundra and Shetty claimed that they were directors of Best Deal TV Pvt Ltd, a now-defunct home shopping and online retail platform. At the time, Shetty reportedly held 87.61 per cent of the shares in the company. Both allegedly sought a loan of ₹75 crore at 12 per cent interest, and the complainant agreed.

However, the FIR said, the couple persuaded him to route the funds as an "investment" to avoid higher taxation, while assuring monthly returns and repayment of principal.

Believing these assurances, Kothari agreed and transferred ₹31.95 crore in April 2015 under a share subscription agreement, followed by ₹28.53 crore under a supplementary agreement in September 2015.

The amount was allegedly credited to Best Deal TV's HDFC Bank accounts, and the couple had paid stamp duty of ₹3.19 lakh, the complainant alleged in the FIR.

The FIR says the complainant received an email from Shetty that she had resigned as director in September 2016 from Best Deal TV.

Kothari asked the reasons, but she did not give a satisfactory answer. Kothari said he later discovered that insolvency proceedings had been initiated against the company in 2017 for defaulting on another agreement.

Kothari approached police and an FIR was registered Wednesday under sections 403 (dishonest and misappropriation of property), 406 (criminal breach of trust) and 34 (common intention).

PAK ARMY CHIEF'S 'NUCLEAR THREAT'

'Tone down reckless rhetoric, misadventure will lead to consequences': India warns Pak

SHUBHAJIT ROY
NEW DELHI, AUGUST 14

AFTER DAYS of escalatory comments by top Pakistani leaders, India on Thursday warned the neighbouring country to tone down its "reckless" rhetoric as any "misadventure" by it would lead to "painful consequences".

India described the statements by Pakistan Army chief Asim Munir and top Pakistan leaders including Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif as "reckless, war-mongering and hateful". A PTI report said Munir made a nuclear clear threat during an address to the Pakistani diaspora in Florida on Saturday. "We are a nuclear nation. If we think we're going down, we'll take half the world down with us," he was quoted as saying.

Pakistan PM Shehbaz Sharif has said the "enemy" would not be allowed to snatch "even one drop" of water belonging to his country. And former Pakistan foreign minister Bilawal Bhutto, too, issued threats to India over the Indus Waters Treaty.

On Thursday, Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said: "We have seen reports regarding a continuing pattern of reckless, war-mongering and hateful comments from Pakistani leadership against India."

Referring to the military strikes on Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Kashmir during Operation Sindoor in May, the MEA spokesperson said: "It is well known modus-operandi of the Pakistani leadership to whip up anti-India rhetoric time and again to hide their own failures."

"Pakistan would be well-advised to temper its rhetoric as any misadventure will have painful consequences as was demonstrated recently," he said.

Responding to Pakistan Army Chief Field Marshal Asim Munir's diatribe against India, New Delhi had said earlier this week that India would not give in to nuclear blackmail and underlined that it would "take all steps necessary to safeguard our national security".

Pakistan had criticised India's Ministry of External Affairs, accusing it of "twisting" Munir's remarks during his visit to the US.
